Re: Alabeli, et al. v. United States of America, et al., No. 22 Civ. 2062 (AT)

Dear Judge Torres:

This Office represents Defendants the United States of America and the United States Department of Agriculture in the above-referenced action brought by Plaintiffs Nishwan Ali Alabeli and Big Famous 1 Deli & Grocery Inc. to enjoin and restrain Defendants from temporarily disqualifying Plaintiffs, for a period of six months, from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program ("SNAP"). On March 31, 2022, the Court entered a Stipulation and Order staying Plaintiffs' disqualification from the SNAP until final disposition of this action. See Dkt. No. 10. Since the Court's entry of the Stipulation and Order, the parties have been discussing the possibility of resolving this action through settlement.

I write respectfully to request that the Court stay all future deadlines, including the May 10 deadline to submit a joint letter and proposed Case Management Plan and Scheduling Order, see Dkt. No. 6, as well as the May 10 deadline to inform the Court whether the parties consent to proceed before the assigned Magistrate Judge, see Dkt. No. 7, and order the parties to submit a joint status update every 30 days regarding the status of settlement discussions. Such a stay would allow the parties additional time to resolve this action without further litigation. Neither party has previously sought an extension or stay of any deadlines in this action, and Plaintiffs join in this request.

I thank the Court for its consideration of this matter.

DENIED. By May 17, 2022, the parties shall submit their joint letter and proposed case management plan and inform the Court whether they consent to proceed before a Magistrate Judge.

SO ORDERED.

New York, New York
